

Can Your Company Help Us Feed The Poor?

Sponsor Holiday Food Boxes & Feed the Hungry

Corporate Sponsors Needed

The House of Peace provides food boxes to over 1,000 needy households during the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays. Can your company help us feed the poor this year?

Donations from corporate sponsors are used to underwrite some of the operating costs of this massive effort.

Corporate sponsors' logos are printed on the Holiday Food Box and then distributed to groups running food drives. An estimated 8,000 individuals in 6 counties see the boxes as they help fill them in one of over 100 food drives.

Then 1,000 households that participate receive food boxes with everything they need for a holiday meal. Again the corporate logos on the box are seen by the estimated 5,700+ recipients.

Join with other businesses in supporting the House of Peace and its efforts to feed the hungry this holiday season. Over 13,000 individuals, both donors and recipients, in 6 SE Wisconsin counties will thank you for joining the fight against hunger!

Corporate sponsorships start at $1,000 for logo placement but gifts at any level are appreciated. To become a corporate sponsor contact:

How does the House of Peace help the needy?

The House of Peace was founded in 1968 by Br. Booker Ashe, O.F.M., Capuchin and Fr. Matthew Gottschalk, O.F.M., Capuchin. We are located on the corner of 17th and Walnut Streets in the City of Milwaukee.

Following the example of St. Francis of Assisi, we operate a food pantry, clothes closet and provide counseling. The House of Peace also hosts the UW-M College of Nursing-HOP Nursing Clinic and the Marquette Volunteer Legal Clinic.

Staff and volunteers serve the needy by offering a Teen Program, Women's Empowerment Classes and offering space for local community groups to meet.

Thank You to our 2009 Corporate Sponsors:
